6. The Parties will encourage cooperation and direct exchange between Finnish and Chinese archives, libraries and museums. The forms and the extent of cooperation, e.g. exchange of recordings, manuscripts and photographs in areas such as folklore, history and heritage management or culture at large, will be decided directly by the institutions concerned. The Parties will encourage direct cooperation between the National Museums of respective countries.

7. The Parties will encourage cooperation between professional ensembles, actors, directors and other relevant performers in the areas of film and theatre. The Parties will endeavour to exchange information and documentation on major current events in the fields of film festivals and film archives. The Parties will encourage organisation of film weeks in each other's country. The details will be directly agreed upon by the competent authorities of respective countries.

8. The Parties will encourage direct contacts in the field of music. The exchange will be based on direct cooperation and agreements between relevant organisations, producers, artists and other actors concerned.

9. The Parties will promote literature of each other’s country, encourage mutual translation of their literary works and exchange of visits between their writer’s organizations and writers. The Parties will inform each other about grants for translators of literature into each other’s languages.

10. Both sides will encourage their publishing institutions or enterprises to translate and publish each other’s quality publications. Both sides will encourage their publishing institutions or enterprises to participate in each other’s international book fairs.

II EDUCATION, SCIENCE AND RESEARCH

11. The Parties underlined their commitment to strengthen their cooperation in area of education and the importance of a continued policy dialogue on education, including the modernisation agenda for lifelong learning strategies, higher education and quality assurance.

12. The Parties agreed to further direct cooperation between universities and other relevant educational institutions in their respective countries, as well as between institutions that deal with evaluation, scientific research, technological development and innovation.

13. They also agreed to encourage joint research projects of common interest in accordance, where appropriate, with agreements concluded directly between the institutions concerned.
14. The Parties will support the practice of extending invitations to visiting lecturers from the other country to deliver lectures or to participate in e.g. scientific conferences and seminars. All details concerning such invitations and participation will be specified directly between the institutions concerned.

15. During the period of validity of this Memorandum of Understanding the Parties will exchange, when appropriate, delegations in the field of education. The terms of cooperation, be it higher education, vocational or at any other level, will be specified through direct consultations between the institutions concerned.

16. The Parties will promote cooperation in science and research between universities, research funding organisations and other relevant institutions. Cooperation between the Parties may include activities, such as:
   (i) joint research projects,
   (ii) exchange of scientists, researchers, professors and experts,
   (iii) joint participation in relevant international research programmes, and
   (iv) sharing of experience and exchange of information in research and science and technology policy.

   All relevant details will be specified directly between the institutions concerned.

17. Upon request the Parties will exchange information and documentation on the structure, content and organisations of the education system in the respective countries.

18. Both Parties will continue to encourage and support their education institutions to carry out teaching on the language and culture of the other Party.

III CIVIL SOCIETY, YOUTH AND SPORTS

19. The Parties will promote civil society exchanges and people-to-people interaction and encourage various forms of cooperation initiated by civil society of the two countries.

20. The Parties noted with satisfaction the existing cooperation between the Youth Policy Division of the Finnish Ministry of Education and the All-China Youth Federation. The Memorandum of Understanding on youth cooperation will be renewed in June 2010 in Beijing. The Parties expressed their support to the further development of the cooperation.

21. Both parties will encourage and support exchange and cooperation in sports. Details will be decided between the respective sports organisations and associations.

IV SCHOLARSHIPS

22. A brief description of scholarship programmes and financial provisions that both Parties offer to each other is given in Annex I and Annex II. ANNEX I

The Chinese Government Scholarship

1. During the validity of this Memorandum of Understanding, the Chinese side will provide annually 10 full scholarships for undergraduates, master students, Ph.D candidates and students for advanced studies (including those whose study periods have been extended) from Finland.

2. The Chinese Government Full Scholarship includes:

   (1) Remissions of registration fee, tuition, experimental fee, internship fee, basic teaching material fee and free accommodation on campus. The basic teaching material fee means the necessary teaching material for course study designated by the hosting universities and provided to the scholarship holders without charge. Charges for other books and materials will be dealt with by the scholarship holders themselves.

   (2) Living subsidies:
   The living subsidies will be given to the scholarship holders by their hosting universities. The standards are as the following:
   1400 RMB per month per person for undergraduate students and students studying Chinese language;
   1700 RMB per month per person for master degree students and students for regular studies;
   2000 RMB per month per person for Ph.D candidates and students for advanced studies.

   (3) A once-and-off settlement fee after first arrival in China. The standards are:
   1000 RMB per person for those whose study period in China is less than 1 academic year;
   1500 RMB per person for those whose study period in China is one academic year or more than one academic year.

   (4) A once-and-off inter-city transportation fee
   A once-and-off fee for a train ticket (hard berth ticket or hard seat ticket) will be provided to cover the transportation from entrance city to the city where the hosting university or the language teaching school (preparatory education) is located for new students; from the city where the language teaching school is located to the city where hosting university is located for enrolled students; and for graduating students, from the city where the hosting university is located to the embarkation city. The meals during the journey and the fees for excess luggage will be covered by the students themselves.

   (5) Clinical medical service and the Comprehensive Medical Insurance Benefit Plan for Chinese Government Scholarship Holders
   Clinical medical fee means the regular clinical fees for students to have medical treatment in the hosting university hospitals or the hospitals designated by hosting universities. After treatment, students should pay part of the charges by proportions according to relevant regulations of the hosting universities.

The Comprehensive Insurance and Benefit Plan for Chinese Government Scholarship holders is provided by the Ministry of Education of China in case of hospitalizing for serious diseases and accidental injuries. The hosting universities of the scholarship holders or the entrusted medical assistance agencies provide advancement service for insurance expenses, and claim settlement with relevant payment receipts from the insurance company according to the stipulated insurance articles. The insurance company will not accept individual claims of the scholarship holders.

3 The Ministry of Education of China consigns the China Scholarship Council to take charge of the enrollment and daily management of the Chinese Government Scholarship. Details could be found via 222.csc.edu.cn/laihua.

4 International students who receive Chinese Government Scholarships for studying in China more than one year (including one year) should participate the annual evaluation. Evaluation will be carried out by hosting universities according to relevant regulations. For those who fail in the annual evaluation, their scholarship will be terminated accordingly.
